The Food Recovery Program:

- Feeds the hungry by providing Bay Area community organizations with a diverse selection of healthy fruits and vegetables.
- Lowers operating costs and increases storage space for our merchant businesses.
- Continues The SF Market's long tradition of diverting food from going to waste.

"Thank you for the wonderful produce we have been receiving. It's a huge help, and allows us to offer a seasonal variety to our clients!"

ABOUT THE SF MARKET

The San Francisco Wholesale Produce Market (The SF Market) makes things grow – for farmers, distributors, wholesalers, retailers, restaurants, and communities. Home to 31 permanent merchants in a single vibrant San Francisco marketplace, The SF Market is a platform for critical access and scale. We provide the food infrastructure, programs and relationships that help hundreds of farmers, Bay Area food businesses and their communities thrive. Our diverse range of produce businesses supplies the widest, best-tasting selection of fresh produce available in Northern California.
